

“In the Bay Area you have many choices when you seek counseling for individual, couple or family challenges. Pat is the one I turn to, since she is very intelligent, but warm, caring and creative at the same time. Her counseling techniques are based in reality...nothing you couldn't imagine trying as you battle life's challenges. I recommend her highly.”