

“My daughter is doing well and is much more balanced than last year, and as a result she has super sweet close friends. Her grades are As and Bs. She has a tutor in Chemistry who she just loves and is getting a new perspective on her science abilities. She really enjoyed working with you.”